DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-30, drawn to a measuring unit comprising a first member having a first channel and second member having a second channel, and a partition member having a through hole through which the sample is allowed to pass from the first and second channel, wherein the partition member comprises a base having the through hole and a projecting portion which projects from the base around the through hole, classified in class 356, subclass 246.
- II. Claims 31-46, drawn to a method and a mold for molding a partition member having a through-hole through which a sample is allowed to pass, the mold comprising: a male die including a core pin having a shape conformable to the through-hole; and a female die including a cavity having a shape conformable to the partition member, wherein the female die further includes a vent extending from the cavity to outside of the female die for degassing the cavity, and the cavity has an inlet of the vent located in opposed relation to the core pin, classified in class 264, subclass 328.1+.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Application/Control Number: 10/716,412

Art Unit: 2877

Inventions [I] and [II] are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct if they do not overlap in scope and are not obvious variants, and if it is shown that at least one subcombination is separately usable. In the instant case, subcombination [I and II] has separate utility such as [in device without the particulars of the other subcombination as indentified above]. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Sang Nguyen whose telephone number is (571) 272-2425. The examiner can normally be reached on 9:30 am to 7:00 pm.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Gregory J. Toatley, Jr. can be reached on (571) 272-2800 ext. 77. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
